

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

IT'S THE TIME TO BEGIN!

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree focuses on management and business administration, with a firm foundation in both theory and practical management skills. This degree includes a broad overview of the many skills involved in management, leadership, strategic planning, accounting, and covers a wide range of topics including management analytics and international business.

SNU's MBA degree offers the widest survey of business administration, including operating principles and common challenges. The MBA concludes with a simulation capstone project that prepares students for the real-world challenges of leading and operating a business.

Our master's degree in business administration is ideal for graduates aspiring to the c-suite, vice-president, director, executive, or senior leadership positions. MBA graduates are prepared for career paths such as executive branch working professionals, business leaders, and human resources managers.
