FINANCE

ABOUT

The Finance program provides students with many academic opportunities and a faith-based developmental experience in alignment with the university mission "To make Christlike disciples through higher education." Individuals holding Finance degrees are currently in high demand within the workforce. Graduates have obtained positions as financial advisors, analysts, managers, stock brokers, and chief financial officers; while others are enjoying careers in banking, insurance, and real estate. Finance careers provide a wide range of opportunities to serve and assist people and organizations create wealth. Christian leaders can make a tremendous difference in directing these funds toward Kingdom causes. As part of the degree program, Finance majors are encouraged to complete an internship during their junior or senior year(s) adding real-world on the job training to their overall college experience.
