JOY TO THE WORLD

*Words: Isaac Watts, 1719
Music: George Frederick Handel, 1741;
arr. by Lowell Mason, 1848*

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King!
Let ev'ry heart prepare Him room,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ,
while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
and makes the nations prove
the glories of His righteousness
and wonders of His love,
and wonders of His love,
and wonders, wonders of His love.

ALMA MATER

*Words: Adopted 1940;
Revised by J. Michael Crabtree (1986),
Music: H.S. Thompson (1857)*

VERSE 1

Of all the schools in this fair land
There's one whose name we praise,
She's founded on ideals of right,
To her our songs we raise.
(to Chorus)

VERSE 2

We'll work for her, we'll fight for her,
Be loyal, brave, and true,
We'll bring her fame and grace her name
In everything we do.
(to Chorus)

VERSE 3

Though many ways our paths may lead
When we from school depart,
Let faith in God now burning bright
Remain in every heart.
(to Chorus)

CHORUS

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to you.
Red and white stand for the light
Of dear old SNU.

Speaker

MS. AMY DOWNS

Amy Downs was one of the last survivors to be pulled from the rubble of the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing in which a total of 168 people were killed including 18 of her 33 co-workers. While buried alive and waiting to die, she realized she had never really lived. Once freed from the rubble, Downs promised God she would never live her life the same.

She began her career as a teller 33 years ago working for the Credit Union located in the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building. At the time of the bombing, Downs was a credit card loan officer who flunked out of college and weighed more than 350 pounds. In the coming years, she'd not only lose weight but become a triathlete—and even become an Ironman finisher. She went back to school and obtained her bachelor's degree and then a Master of Business Administration from Southern Nazarene University.

Amy is now CEO of the same credit union which was nearly destroyed in the bombing. She is also a speaker and author of the book Hope is a Verb. Amy lives with her husband, Terry Head, in Yukon, OK. They spend their free time riding bicycles, hiking, and kayaking.

Crimson Award

DR. AMI SIEMS

Ami (Pryor) Siems graduated from Bethany Nazarene College in 1981 with a degree in Biology and pursued a career in medicine immediately after. She has a Master's degree in BioChemistry from OU Health Sciences and earned her M.D. in 1988. Her medical practice specialty is family medicine.

Dr. Siems has volunteered as our Campus Physician from Fall '97 to the present. She has seen countless students, staff, and faculty over the years and has enabled SNU to provide medical services without ever leaving the Bethany campus. Additionally, Dr. Siems serves as the Medical Director for the Canadian County Health Department, as well as the campus physician for the Canadian County Children's Justice Center.

Every year, but especially during the Covid pandemic, SNU is deeply indebted to Dr. Ami for her endless hours of testing, prevention and guidance as we served our students. Dr. Siems is a true LiveLast leader.

She currently serves on the church board at Bethany First Church of the Nazarene and has served in numerous capacities at the church including Volunteer at Tulakes Clinic. Dr. Ami has served BFC Youth as mission trip sponsor, youth softball coach, camp and retreat sponsor, and girls small group leader.

Ami has been married to Bill Dillard since 2000. They have 4 children between them and 3 grandchildren.

Commencement Information

ACADEMIC MACE

The honor of Academic Mace Bearer is awarded by a faculty vote to a senior member of the SNU faculty in recognition of dedicated service and outstanding qualities that exemplify the SNU motto "Character / Culture / Christ." Today the mace is carried by Kep Keoppel, Professor, School of Education. Dr. Keoppel has served full-time as a SNU faculty member since 1981.

The academic mace traces its origins to the medieval battle mace and royal scepter and was adopted in the 14th century as a symbol of the university's ideals and commitment to learning. On ceremonial occasions at SNU, the mace is carried by a senior faculty member at the head of the procession. For commencement exercises, the mace is placed in its stand to signal the beginning of the ceremony and removed to mark the ceremony's end.

The SNU academic mace made its inaugural journey in the May 2008 Commencement. It is crafted in walnut from a tree that once grew on SNU's campus, and the stand is made from wood salvaged from another historic SNU building called The Tabernacle where early Nazarenes once worshipped. Both of these pieces of wood, though cracked and flawed, were saved by the late Dr. Lyle Tullis, SNU Professor Emeritus of Sociology, whose life and service impacted countless SNU colleagues and students. His son, Dr. K. J. Tullis, used this wood to craft the mace.

HONORS AND REGALIA

Students graduating with high cumulative grade point averages are indicated in the candidate lists as follows. Grade point averages for the most recent semester may or may not be included.

*Cum laude - cumulative GPA of 3.50 through 3.74

Magna cum laude - cumulative GPA of 3.75 through 3.89

 Summa cum laude - cumulative GPA of 3.90 through 4.00

Hoods are unique to educational institutions and are vestments that identify the degree conferred and the granting institution. Students receiving master's degrees today are vested with a hood with the SNU colors identified in the silk lining. The edging of the hoods shows the colors of degrees conferred today: drab for Master of Business Administration, white for Master of Arts, golden-yellow for Master of Science, and light blue for Doctor of Education.

Cords and medallions worn by degree candidates signify membership in honor societies, participation in the Ronald E. McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement program, participation in Student Support Services, participation in the Presidential Leadership Scholar program, participation in the LiveLast service program or completion of the SNU Honors Program. Military students and faculty are wearing red, white and blue cords signifying their service.

DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

The Distinguished Achievement Award is an honor granted to students from each cohort in the School of Professional Studies. Selection is based on outstanding scholarship and exceptional leadership within the program and on recommendations by program directors, faculty and classmates. Recipients are identified with the ^ symbol in the degree candidates list. This marks the 36th year for the presentation of these awards.

UNIVERSITY HONORS

The University Honors Award is an honor of special recognition chosen by the Board of Trustees. Each honor is an expression of the values of Southern Nazarene University. In bestowing any of them, the Board of Trustees not only recognizes an individual but also states publicly that the individual exemplifies SNU's values. The Crimson Award celebrates outstanding long-term service to SNU, to the SNU community, or to the Church of the Nazarene.

COMMENCEMENT PERSONNEL

Faculty Marshals and the Office of Academic Affairs, in conjunction with other Commencement Planning Committee members, are primarily responsible for the planning and coordination of Commencement ceremonies. The Faculty Marshals serving today are Dr. Sylvia Goodman, Professor and Director, Kinesiology Graduate Programs; Dr. Cathy Hutchings-Wedel, Professor and Director, Organizational Leadership, School of Professional Studies; Dr. Loren McElroy, Associate Professor and Director, PTA Program; Dr. Tim Taylor, Professor and Chair, School of Education; and Dr. Ron Wright, Professor, Department of Psychology and Counseling.

University Marshals are students recognized for their outstanding academic performance among those anticipating graduation in the coming academic year. These students are selected each year based on cumulative credit hours and grade point averages. The following University Marshals are assisting the Faculty Marshals during the December 2021 Commencement:

Jaime Acre
William Heise
Madeline Hoffpauir
Madeline Lynch

Valerie Moutinho
Macie Joy Nantze
Melanie B. Siems
Abigail Tardibono

Ethan Thomason
Hannah Westrick
Preston Williams
Patricia Wilson

IN EVENT OF EMERGENCY

- Announcements and/or instructions will be given by SNU platform personnel.
- Law enforcement officers and SNU security personnel are on site to assist.
 - Be aware and give assistance to elderly, disabled and children.
 - Elevators should not be used during emergency evacuation.
 - Exits are located at the outer four corners of the Sawyer Center.

Our mission is to make Christlike disciples
through higher education.
