Hall of Witnesses

SOUTHERN NAZARENE
UNIVERSITY

The Hall of Witnesses

A place of honor on the campus of SNU to recognize those elders and laity who have invested their lives in Christian service to build endowed resources for educating and supporting future generations of Christian servants.

We invite districts, churches, boards, family members and colleagues to partner with Southern Nazarene University in establishing a place of honor for the great cloud of witnesses, living or deceased, who have carried the light of the Gospel around the world. The names of those honored will be placed in The Hall of Witnesses, located in the S.T. Ludwig Religion Building on the campus of Southern Nazarene University. These gifts of honor will support the endowment funding ministerial intern scholarships.

Whom may be honored?

Any individual or couple who have given of themselves in Christian service for a minimum of 10 years

- Pastors
- Chaplains
- Associates
- Lay leaders
- Missionaries
- Christian educators
- Evangelists
- University leaders & employees

Sponsorship opportunities

Honorees may be nominated by one, or more than one individual, groups of individuals, Church boards or other organizations, all of whom will receive recognition in the donor portion of The Hall of Witnesses. Each nominee will have a short biography of their Christian service on the Touch Screen display.
