

DR. JIM GRAVES

Professor & Director of Choral Activities

A multifaceted vocal artist, arranger, and educator, Dr. Jim Graves serves as Director of Choral Activities at Southern Nazarene University. He directs the University Singers, SNU Chorale, and Concert Choir. He also teaches courses in music education, conducting, and private and group voice. Graves has led groups at the National ACDA Convention, at the Jazz Education Network National Convention, has presented interest sessions at the National and regional level of the American Choral Directors Association, and was formerly the Southwest ACDA Jazz R & S Chair. Previously, he directed The University of North Texas Jazz Singers II, and vocal ensembles in Idaho, and Colorado.

Graves' arrangements have been performed by The University of North Texas Jazz Singers, UNT Jazz Singers II, University of Oklahoma Singing Sooners, and performing groups from around the United States. He and his beautiful wife Elizabeth are parents to Sarah, Lane, and Isabelle.

STUDY VOICE AT SNU

What it's like to study music at SNU?

- Performance opportunities for all students include various ensembles including Chorale, University Singers, Concert Choir, and musicals and solo opportunities.
- Scholarships available for majors and non-majors
- Degrees in Performance, Music Education, Commercial Music Production, and Worship Arts
- Study music in a Christ-centered environment

For more information or to arrange an audition, contact:

Dr. Jim Graves, Professor & Director of Choral Activities
405.491.6345 | jgraves@snu.edu

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

SOUTHERN NAZARENE UNIVERSITY

405.491.6345 | music@snu.edu | 6729 NW 39th Expressway | Bethany, Oklahoma 73008 | snu.edu/school-of-music